FOLDING AND RAISING THE THIRD ROW SEATS

To avoid injury, the loadspace cover must not be left in the installed position when the third row seats are occupied.

Beware of trapping fingers when raising and lowering the third row seat.

When raising the rear seats, make sure that the seat belts are correctly routed into the seat belt guides and not trapped behind the seats.